

I.T.1. Notes

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN FILLING YOUR INCOME TAX RETURN - YEAR 2006

1. The return is invalid if completed on estimated basis or if not completed in all aspects and if not accompanied by accounts and any other supporting documents.
2. These notes are for general guidance. Nothing contained herein affects your obligation to make a full and true statement of your income. If you require any assistance, visit the Domestic Taxes Department office nearest to you.

A. IMPORTANT

All income declared in this return should be for the Calendar year 2006.

B. WIFE'S INCOME

The income of a married woman living with her husband is deemed to be the income of the husband, for Income Tax purposes. A married woman may complete her own return if:-

- (a) She is permanently separated from her husband either by court order or by written agreement.
- (b) She is a resident of Kenya and her husband is not.
- (c) She opts to file a separate return on her employment, professional or self-employment income.

NOTE: Self employment income does not include Rent income, which should be declared by and assessed on her husband.

C. PENALTIES

For failing to furnish accounts, declaring incorrect income or making incorrect statement or for claiming false personal/Insurance relief you will be guilty of an offence under Section III of the Income Tax Act.

D. DATE OF SERVICE

Where a notice or other document is served through the post, service is deemed in the absence of proof to the contrary to have been effected:-

- (a) 10 days after the date of posting, where it is sent to any address in Kenya, or
- (b) at the time at which the notice would be delivered in the ordinary course of post, where it is sent to any address outside Kenya.

INCOME FROM EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICES RENDERED

1) VALUE OF BENEFITS (OTHER THAN CAR OR HOUSING)

You should include the value of any benefit, advantage or facility of whatsoever nature enjoyed as a result of your employment. This covers, among other things, the value of any free or partly free:-

- (a) Board, residence or meals provided at your employer's place of business.
- (b) Domestic servants.
- (c) Transport from your residence to your place of work.
- (d) Goods and/or services.

- Benefits in kind or in the form of services, however need not be included if the total value from all employments during the year was less than KShs.36,000/=.
- If your employer provides free medical service this need not be included but if your employer pays your doctor's bills or reimburses you in cash, the amount is liable to tax.
- Expenditure borne by the employer on passages of an employee is liable to tax except in those cases where the employee was recruited or engaged outside Kenya solely for the purposes of serving the employer, and is not a citizen of Kenya. If however, such an employee receives passage money and uses it for purposes other than the cost of own or his family's passage, e.g. for conveyance of his car, then the passage money is liable to tax.

- You should consult with your employer as to the value of benefits received.
- If any amount is paid by your employer on your behalf for personal liabilities such as household bills, such amount is income from employment and must be declared.
- If your employer pays income tax for you, obtain relevant notes from the employer to enable you calculate tax on tax.

With effect from 12th June, 2003, the value of a benefit is the higher of cost of such benefit to the employer or the fair market value, provided that the Commissioner shall prescribe the value when the cost or fair market value of benefit cannot be determined.

The Commissioner's prescribed rates for some of the benefits are as follows:-

A	SERVICES	MONTHLY RATES (SHS.)	ANNUAL RATES (SHS.)
	Electricity (communal or from a generator)	1,500	18,000
	Water (communal or from borehole)	500	6,000
	Provision of furniture 1% per month of cost to employer. If hired, the cost of hire should be brought to charge.
	Telephone (landline and mobile phones) 30% of bills.

B AGRICULTURAL EMPLOYEES - required under the terms of employment to reside in a plantation:-

Water	200	2,400
