Extension of Customs Agents Licences

Arising from several inquiries regarding the renewal of the Customs Agents licenses for the year 2017, the Customs & Border Control Department wishes to clarify that the Customs Agents licenses issued for the year 2016 are still valid. The extension of the validity period of the licenses has been granted by the Commissioner of Customs up to the end of April 2017 to facilitate smooth renewal process. No person holding 2016 license has been or will be prevented from doing business with Customs.

Currently the renewal process is ongoing in accordance with the provisions of Section 145 of the East African Community Customs Management Act, 2004 and once concluded, applicants shall be notified appropriately.
